

Technology, Engineering & Computing TEC CAMP

June 18 – 22, 2012

Camp Overview: The Women in Engineering Program at the Georgia Institute of Technology will be hosting a week-long, day camp for middle school girls from June 18–22, 2012. This fun and interactive camp is designed to give girls an early introduction to the exciting world of engineering with the hope of inspiring them to eventually consider college majors and careers in engineering.

Camp Hours: Participants should arrive on campus by 8:00 a.m. and will leave at 4:30 p.m., except on Friday when there will be a celebratory end-of-camp banquet until 8PM. Drop-off and pick-up information will be provided upon acceptance.

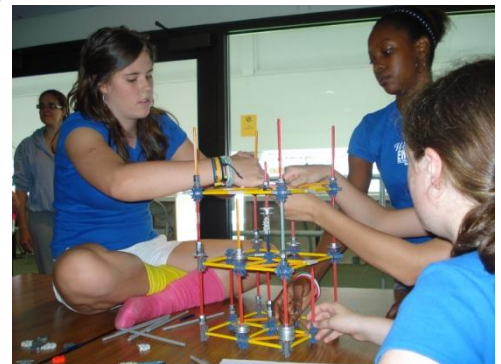

Program Highlights: Students will participate in a multitude of activities including exploring engineering and computer science through exciting hands-on projects, meeting female undergraduate students and professional women who will share their experiences, and working on a project as a team with other students and present the group's findings.

Instructors and Facilities: TEC students will be well supervised throughout the program by professional institute staff and college student assistants. Engineering faculty and specialists will teach courses in Web Page Design, Flight/Rockets, Robotics, and Presentation Skills. Seminars will be held in Georgia Tech classrooms and laboratories, and a field trip will take place at our Campus Recreation Center.

Meals: Each day, lunch will be served, as well as an afternoon snack.

Who Should Apply?: Middle school girls currently in 6th and 7th grade with an interest in science, math and technology. The camp will be limited to 40 girls. Applicants will be selected based on their essay and transcript.

Registration: The registration fee for TEC is $250.00, which covers tuition, meals, materials and supplies. Please do not send the program fee until your daughter is accepted to TEC Camp.

To Apply: An on-line application can be found at www.coe.gatech.edu/content/tec-camp. The deadline to apply is Friday, April 6, 2012. Application decisions will be made by Friday, April 20.
